Introduction

Interviewer: This interview is being conducted on 2026-01-02T23:30:00-05:00. Please state your name and role.

Interviewee: Derek Huang. Evening security guard.

Interviewer: Are you willing to answer questions about the incident timeline, including events documented as E003, E007, and E008?

Interviewee: Yes.

Interviewer: If you don't know or don't remember something, say so.

Interviewee: Understood.

Background Questions

Interviewer: How long have you worked as evening security?

Interviewee: About a year.

Interviewer: What are your normal duties during your shift?

Interviewee: Front entry checks, routine walkthroughs, watching cameras, and logging anything unusual.

Interviewer: Which systems do you typically use or rely on during the shift?

Interviewee: The camera monitor and the access control panel. If there's an alert, I write it down and report it.

Interviewer: Do you have access to the video or system records that were later collected as evidence EV003 and EV008?

Interviewee: I can view live and look back while on duty, but I don't export. When something needs to be kept, a supervisor handles the evidence pull.

Incident Questions

Interviewer: Walk me through your shift in order on the day of the incident, as it relates to E003.

Interviewee: I came on and did a standard check. I watched the main entry and did a first walkthrough. Nothing stood out early.

Interviewer: Do you recall any alarms, forced doors, or unusual access events?

Interviewee: No forced door alarm that I remember. I remember a couple normal entries, but nothing that made me call anyone right away.

Interviewer: What do you recall around E007?

Interviewee: That was later in the shift. I was at the monitor more during that period. I did a walkthrough after, because I wanted to be sure things were calm.

Interviewer: Did you observe anything on camera that you thought was important?

Interviewee: I saw routine movement. I can't say more without the footage in front of me.

Interviewer: Are you aware that the footage and/or related system records were preserved as EV003?

Interviewee: Yes. I was told it was saved.

Interview with Derek Huang (Evening Security Guard)

CONFIDENTIAL • INTERNAL USE ONLY

Interviewer: What about E008—what do you recall at that point in the timeline?

Interviewee: That's when it became clear something needed attention. I followed procedure: monitor, then a check, then notify.

Interviewer: Did you touch, move, or remove anything from the scene area?

Interviewee: No. I did not handle anything. I kept people out and waited for direction.

Alibi Verification

Interviewer: During the key period tied to E007 through E008, where were you physically located?

Interviewee: Mostly at the security desk and then on one walkthrough route.

Interviewer: Was anyone with you during the walkthrough?

Interviewee: Not the whole time. I passed staff in the hallway briefly.

Interviewer: Are there records that would confirm your location or actions?

Interviewee: The cameras and system records should show when I was at the desk area and when I walked the halls. That should be in EV003. If there are access logs, that might be in EV008.

Interviewer: Did you leave the premises at any point during your shift?

Interviewee: No.

Interviewer: Did you use your personal phone for anything related to the incident?

Interviewee: No.

Closing

Interviewer: Is there anything you want to add that we did not cover?

Interviewee: Just that I followed normal procedure and reported what I could.

Interviewer: If you remember additional details later—times, people, or what you saw—will you notify us?

Interviewee: Yes.

Interviewer: This interview concludes on 2026-01-02T23:30:00-05:00.

Interviewee: Understood.

Interview concluded at 04:07. Subject provided voluntary statement. No coercion or duress observed.
